Re: Paula Broadwell

Dear [REDACTED]

Through this letter, we are transmitting the executed consent form that you asked our client, Paula Broadwell, to complete, subject to the following observations:

1. Ms. Broadwell's consent to the search of the accounts listed in the attached document shall not be tantamount to an admission of any kind. Nor shall it waive her rights or privileges beyond the specific rights expressly waived in the consent form.
2. Ms. Broadwell does not know the login and password information for the accounts listed in the attached document, and her record of them is stored on the computers that agents seized, in a consensual search of her house, on November 12, 2012.
3. As discussed, you will let us know when the searches of the accounts listed on the attached document are complete, so that Ms. Broadwell can access them and retrieve from them the data that the government does not need. Some of these accounts include the full range of personal data, such as contacts [REDACTED]
4. Ms. Broadwell's consent to this search is entirely consistent with her full cooperation with the government's investigations, including but not limited to the Tampa office's

The person or property to be searched, described above, is believed to conceal (Identify the person or describe the property to be searched):
See Attachment B, which is incorporated fully herein.

I find that the affidavit(s), or any recorded testimony, establish probable cause to search and seize the person or property.

YOU ARE COMMANDED to execute this warrant on or before April 17, 2013
(not to exceed 14 days)

☒ in the daytime 6:00 a.m. to 10 p.m. ☐ at any time in the day or night as I find reasonable cause has been established.

Unless delayed notice is authorized below, you must give a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property taken to the person from whom, or from whose premises, the property was taken, or leave the copy and receipt at the place where the property was taken.

The officer executing this warrant, or an officer present during the execution of the warrant, must prepare an inventory as required by law and promptly return this warrant and inventory to United States Magistrate Judge Robert J. Conrad, Jr.

☐ I find that immediate notification may have an adverse result listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2705 (except for delay of trial), and authorize the officer executing this warrant to delay notice to the person who, or whose property, will be searched or seized (check the appropriate box) ☐ for _____ days (not to exceed 30).
☐ until, the facts justifying, the later specific date of _____

This is one of those items we've been working on. The attached are results of domestic travel by both David Petraeus [REDACTED] between his resignation from CIA in November 2012 and the FBI search of his home in April 2013. This time frame corresponds to potential storage of the Black Books in an unsecure space, i.e. between the removal of the [REDACTED] in the home and recovery of the Books by the FBI.
